Venice, April 8, 1894.

My dear Professor Tacchini, I thank you for your very kind letter, with the letters of introduction you were good enough to enclose. I am very sorry indeed to learn that you cannot go with us to Sicily, but I still hope you may find it possible to go. We expect to spend next week in Florence (care Magway, Hooker & Co.) and arrive in Rome about April 22. I shall give myself the pleasure of calling at the Collegio Romano soon after my arrival.

With kind regards, I am

Very sincerely yours
George S. Hale
