

Tenth Annual
Exhibition of Meteorological Instruments.

MARCH 19th—22nd, 1889.

INSTRUMENTS CONNECTED WITH ATMOSPHERIC PHYSICS.

ROYAL METEOROLOGICAL SOCIETY,

30 GREAT GEORGE STREET,

WESTMINSTER, S.W.

February 1st, 1889.

SIR,

The Council of the Royal Meteorological Society have arranged to hold at 25 GREAT GEORGE STREET, WESTMINSTER (by permission of the Council of the Institution of Civil Engineers), on March 19th to 22nd next, an Exhibition of Instruments connected with Atmospheric Physics invented during the last ten years, especially those used for Actinic and Solar Radiation Observations. I am therefore instructed by the Exhibition Committee to invite your co-operation, as they are anxious to obtain as large a collection as possible of such instruments, &c.

The Committee will also be glad to show any new Meteorological Instruments or Apparatus invented or first constructed since last March; as well as Photographs and Drawings possessing Meteorological interest.

Should you be willing to co-operate in the proposed Exhibition, I should be obliged by your furnishing me (not later than March 1st) with a list of the articles you will be able to contribute and an estimate of the space they will require.

I am, SIR,

Your obedient Servant,

WILLIAM MARRIOTT,

Assistant Secretary.
